Overview

As a registered Institute of Higher Education, Colleges of Business and Technology (WA) Pty Ltd trading as Curtin College (Curtin College, College or Company) has both corporate and academic governance obligations and responsibilities, outlined in the Tertiary Education Quality and Standards Act 2011 (TEQSA Act) and the Higher Education Standards Framework (Threshold Standards) 2021 (HES Framework).

Curtin College's Governance structure (Appendix A) is designed to enable the College to meet its corporate governance obligations under the HES Framework (particularly Part A, Sections 6.1-6.2) and its academic governance obligations (HES Framework Part A, Sections 6.3).

The framework provides for accountability in decision-making and ensures the quality of the College's operations.

Curtin College operates at Bentley (Perth) and has its Diplomas of Commerce, Arts & Creative Industries (Mass Communication stream) and Information Technology delivered at the Curtin Singapore campus via a third party arrangement with Curtin Education Centre Pte Ltd trading as Curtin Singapore (Curtin Singapore).

Corporate Governance

Corporate governance is the system by which companies are directed and controlled.

The objective of the corporate governance framework set out in this document is to provide a framework for the College's governing body to:

1. Enable it to exercise competent governance oversight of, and be accountable for:
 - a. all of the College's operations in Australia (including accountability for the award of higher education qualifications);
 - b. continuing to meet the requirements of the HES Framework; and
 - c. the College's representation of itself,
 in accordance with Standard 6.1.1 of the HES Framework;
2. attend to its governance functions and processes diligently and effectively in accordance with Standard 6.1.3 of the HES Framework;
3. take steps to develop and maintain an institutional environment in which freedom of intellectual inquiry is upheld and protected, students and staff are treated equitably, the wellbeing of students and staff is fostered, informed decision-making by students is supported and students have opportunities to participate in the deliberative in the decision-making process of the College in accordance with Standard 6.1.4 of the HES Framework;
4. assure itself that the College is operating effectively and sustainably in accordance with Standard 6.2.1 of the HES Framework; and

Governance Structure

5. monitor and provide quality assurance over its third party arrangement with Curtin Singapore in accordance with the TEQSA Guidance Note: Third Party Arrangements.

Governing Body

The College's governing body is the Board of Directors (Board) of Curtin College (Curtin College). Refer to Appendix A and D.

Delegated authorities are identified in a Board-approved Delegations Policy, which subsequently informs college policies that identify authority limits and delegations at Curtin College. The Terms of Reference sets out the functions and responsibilities of the Board.

Terms of Reference

- 1.1 The Board is responsible for all matters relating to the strategic direction, policies, practices, establishment of goals for management, operation of the Company and all representations of the Company. Without intending to limit this general role of the Board, the specific functions and responsibilities of the Board include:
 - (1) oversight of the Company, including its educational outcomes, control and accountability systems;
 - (2) input into the Company's budgeting process;
 - (3) final approval of the Company's learning and teaching plan and corporate plan (including performance targets and objectives);
 - (4) reviewing and ratifying systems of risk management and internal compliance;
 - (5) reviewing that qualifications awarded by the Company are awarded legitimately;
 - (6) reviewing the Company's institutional environment with an emphasis on freedom of intellectual inquiry, equitable treatment of students and staff, fostering of wellbeing of students and staff, supporting informed student decision making and that students are given the opportunity to participate in the deliberative and decision making processes of the Company;
 - (7) confirming that the provision of higher education at the Company is consistent with the Company's policies;
 - (8) monitoring senior management's performance and implementation of strategy, and ensuring appropriate resources are available; and
 - (9) approving and monitoring financial and other reporting.

Independent Directors

In accordance with the TEQSA Guidance Note on Corporate Governance, section 4.2(1) of the Terms of Reference provides that at least two directors of the College will be non-executive and independent directors. Section 4.2(2) of the Terms of Reference adopts the characteristics of an independent member set out in Appendix A to the TEQSA Guidance Note on Corporate Governance.

Subject to removal under the Constitution or the Corporations Act 2001, an independent non-executive director holds office:

- (a) for one (1) term of three (3) years from the date of appointment; and
- (b) subject to a satisfactory review and a resolution passed by a majority of directors entitled to vote on the resolution, one (1) further term of three (3) years, for a maximum of two (2) terms comprising a total of six (6) years.

Governance Structure

Expertise

- (1) The Board shall ensure that, collectively, it has the appropriate range of expertise to properly fulfil its responsibilities, including:
 - (a) accounting;
 - (b) finance;
 - (c) business;
 - (d) higher education;
 - (e) compliance; and
 - (f) senior management-level experience.
- (2) The Board shall review the range of expertise of its members on a regular basis and ensure that it has operational and technical expertise relevant to the operation of the Company.

Appointment of Directors

Directors are appointed in accordance with the terms of the College's constitution (Constitution).

Directors are appointed on the basis of meeting "fit and proper person" requirements.

Subject to the number of directors allowed under the Constitution, a director may be appointed by an ordinary resolution of the College in a general meeting. Where a director's position becomes vacant in between such elections, the Board may appoint a replacement director. Such a replacement director will only hold office until the next annual general meeting of the College.

The terms and conditions of the appointment and retirement of non-executive directors of the Board will be set out in a letter of appointment, which shall include the following matters:

- (1) subject to member approval, the term of the appointment must be in accordance with clause 4.2(3) of the Terms of Reference;
- (2) the powers and duties of directors;
- (3) any special duties or arrangements attached to the position;
- (4) remuneration and expenses;
- (5) the requirement to disclose directors' interests and any matters which affect the director's independence;
- (6) trading policy governing dealings in securities (including any share qualifications) and related financial instruments by directors, including notification requirements;
- (7) access to independent professional advice;
- (8) indemnity and insurance arrangements; and
- (9) confidentiality and rights of access to corporate information.

In Curtin College's Governance Structure, the Board has overarching governance responsibility for the College (Refer Appendix C) in general and is accountable for discharging its obligations under Standards 6.1.1, 6.1.3, 6.1.4 and 6.2.1 of the HES Framework (as set out in the Corporate Governance section of this document) in particular. The Principal Executive Officer of Curtin College is the College Director and Principal (CDP) who is also an ex-officio member of the Academic Board and Chair of the College Leadership Team. The Academic Board has delegated authority from the Board to oversee Curtin College's academic governance (see Appendix A).

Independent Professional Advice

To facilitate independent judgement in decision-making, the Board, with approval of the Chair, has the right to seek independent professional advice at the Company's expense. Approval from the Chair may not be unreasonably withheld.

Governance Structure

Academic Governance

The objective of Academic governance is to provide a framework for the College's Academic Board to:

1. Enable it to exercise competent academic oversight of, and be accountable for:
 - a. the integrity and quality of the core activities of teaching and scholarship;
 - b. providing advice on the overall academic strategic direction and operational planning;
 - c. rigorous scrutiny and review of academic activities including but not limited to: new programs to be accredited, program reviews, re-accreditation of programs, analyses of student progress, completions and retention rates, and student satisfaction;
 - d. ensuring there is sufficient academic capability to provide effective leadership and competent scrutiny and advice. ensuring students have the opportunity to participate in academic governance.
 - e. Setting, monitoring and scrutinising institutional benchmarks for academic quality and outcomes
 - f. continuing to meet the requirements of the HES Framework; and
 - g. the College's representation of itself,

in accordance with Standards 3.1, 3.2, 5.1-5.4, 6.3 and Part B 1.1.2 of the HES Framework;
2. attend to its governance functions and processes diligently and effectively in accordance with Standard 6.3 of the HES Framework;

Framework

Academic governance includes the policies, processes, definitions of roles, relationships, specification of delegations, systems, strategies and resources that ensure academic standards and continuous improvement in academic activities and is concerned with the integrity and quality of the core education activities of teaching, research and scholarship

The College's Governance Structure has an academic arm consisting of the Academic Board and sub-committees: Learning and Teaching Committee, Program Advisory Committees and Board of Examiners.

As the College delivers its programs in collaboration with third-party partner providers, strategies are in place to ensure that there is parity of academic standards and a comparable student and staff experience across all delivery sites. (Refer Appendix B).

Curtin College Non-Academic Governance

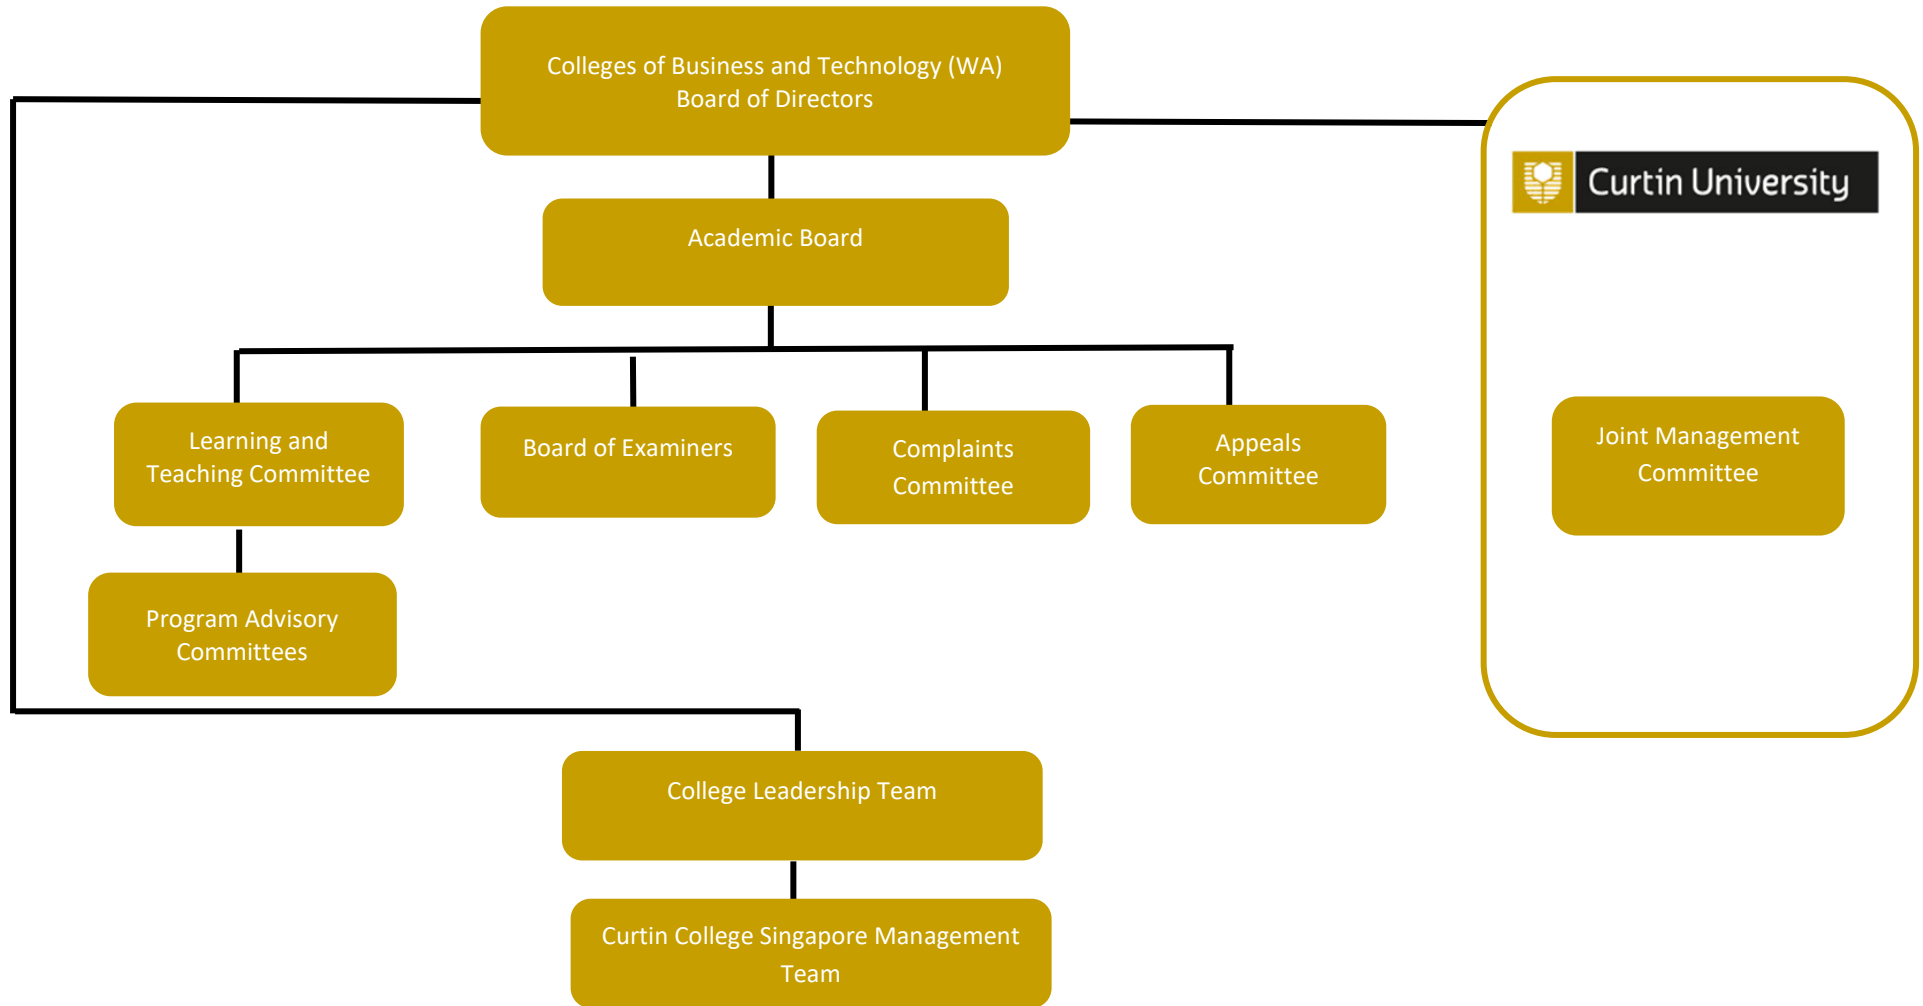

The College Leadership Team within the College is responsible for the oversight of all functions and activities at the College and is responsible for approving policies, implementing continuous improvement initiatives and ensuring the College meets its internal and external regulatory and accreditation requirements.

The Leadership Team is also responsible for reviewing and endorsing the following plans for approval by the relevant Board.

- Strategic Plans (including Marketing)
- Learning and Teaching Plans
- Risk Management Plans
- Work Health and Safety Plans
